Links at Poland Spring

When you tee it up at Poland Spring you are playing on the same turf where... Babe Ruth, Bobby Jones, Harry Vardon, President Taft, Ben Hogan, Jim Gallagher, Sonny Liston, and many more played golf!

The first 9-holes were originally designed by Arthur Fenn in 1896. In 1912-1913, Donald Ross (of Pinehurst fame) would redesign the course to an 18-hole championship course. Walter Travis also left his mark on Poland Spring. All three are huge names in America's golf history.

Poland Spring is an 18-hole championship course par 71 (6,178 yards) Slope 124. Fifteen of the eighteen holes have views of the White Mountains and/or lakes; in the fall, the colors are spectacular. Velvet bentgrass greens, beautiful well maintained fairways, ponds, and tees for all abilities. A Golf Digest "Best Place to Play." Home of the Maine Golf Hall of Fame.

Call the Pro Shop at (207) 998-6002 for tee times or make them when you make your resort reservations. Golf lessons are available with PGA Professional Allan Menne or his assistant.
